A Quart Baby.

Now and again there is an item in the newspapers concerning the birth of a puny baby so small that a quart cup holds it comfortably. If the facts told all the facts it would probably tell also of a mother who in weakness and misery had looked forward to the baby's advent with shrinking and fear.

To have fine, healthy children the mother must be healthy, and it is the common teaching of the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only promotes the mother's health but also gives her strength to give her child.

"Favorite Prescription" accomplishes these results by tranquilizing the

"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens, of Mill, Northumberland County, Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles. It is the finest child I have had since birth, and I suffered very much less than I ever did before. I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use the 'Favorite Prescription'."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Can't you eat? O'her can. Latest improvements in teeth. Our patent suction never falls down.

CO-OPERATIVE CHARITIES.

The Co-operative Charities Association have again entered on their year's work.

In reviewing the work done, the assistance given, and the families helped, we realize that we have been enabled to relieve the suffering of many unable to help themselves. The contributions so liberally given have enabled the ladies of the association as they visit the homes of poverty and destitution to carry happiness with them; they can relieve the wants and cause the cold of winter to pass by unheeded. The hungry have been fed, the children clothed so that they can attend school. Each home is visited before help is given. The committee have visited the different factories and find them well fitted up and comfortable, so that any young girl need not fear to seek employment therein. Especially would we mention the Puff shoe factory. The courteous manager took great care to explain to the committee the different departments.

We found everything perfect, and the young ladies seem to be happy at their work. One of the committee remarked that she would like to have a place in this factory herself. Alexandria can boast of good factories, and certainly the younger generation need not go unemployed. After visiting these factories, the glass factory for boys and the others where girls are employed, we have decided that our work must this year be confined to the aged and sick. All those able to help themselves can find employment in the different factories. We see that there are so many that need help, and our means are limited. In the relief given the Needle Work Guild has contributed clothes, all of which have been distributed from Miss Burke's studio, none being taken anywhere else for distribution. Especially would we return thanks to the Business Men's League for the use of their room during the year as a place of meeting and to the ladies who gave clothes, groceries and money, the merchants who helped in their line, Smoot and Company, Burke and Harber, Bachelor Club, Puff and Sons, Ruehn and Sons, Mr. Fauntleroy, M. B. Harlow, J. E. Zimmerman, Chas. King and Sons, N. Lindsey and Company, Charles E. Hood, a friend, through Mrs. Creighton; DeW. Atchison, R. H. Jenkins, J. M. Hill, and many others too numerous to mention for their cash donations. There have been 140 families helped, as we have stated above to fuel, groceries, clothes and other things necessary to help the suffering. The work has not been easy, as the rain and snow finds these ladies out in all parts of the town. The winter is upon us and our treasury is low and as our work depends upon the donations given, we will have our regular donation party the first week in January. Notice will be given of time and place. Let us remember that God expects us to help a little.

Miss Virginia Burke, president; Mrs. J. E. Alexander, secretary.

Committee—Miss Virginia Burke, Mrs. M. O'Sullivan, Mrs. J. E. Alexander, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. W. F. Creighton, Mrs. E. H. O'Brien, Mrs. F. Dyson, Mrs. J. R. Caton and Mrs. J. M. White.

OFFICERS FIGHT IN COURT.

Clerk Edgar White, of the Richmond Police Court, and Officer W. H. Wyatt, jr., the crusader against the gambling houses of Richmond, engaged in a fight yesterday morning in the Police Court, and almost in the very presence of the presiding magistrate, Judge John Crutchfield. Two blows were passed in quick succession, and each one left a mark. Further damage was prevented by two officers in the court, and both Mr. Wyatt and Mr. White were placed under arrest. The affair took place just after the adjournment of the court. Mr. White, before the docketed Officer Wyatt to remain in the court room awhile, as he wished to speak with him. When the court adjourned, Mr. White approached Wyatt and asked him in regard to spreading a report to the effect that he (White) had engaged in a fight in the lower end of the city. Mr. Wyatt said that he had made the statement. Mr. White at once called him a liar and a scoundrel, and the officer promptly struck the police court officer in the face. Mr. White returned the blow, the face of the policeman catching the stiff blow which he delivered. Bailiff Gibbons and Policeman Robbins interfered. The men were then placed under arrest, and Justice Crutchfield, who had entered the room, said that he would place the men under bond if they signified any intention of renewing the difficulty.

Mr. White said afterward, in explaining the affair, that he had not engaged in any fight, as reported by Officer Wyatt. He had been to the house in question, in company with two well-known lawyers, on a business matter. Officer Wyatt said that he had been told by Policeman Baker, of the First District, that such a fight took place.

Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE of PURITY and AGE, and saving the dealers' enormous profits. That's why HAYNER WHISKEY is the best for medicinal purposes. That's why it is preferred for other uses. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.

SUICIDE OF A YOUNG MAN.—J. Boothroy Taylor, a young man of Lynchburg, committed suicide about 7:30 o'clock Monday night in the waiting-room of the Hotel Carroll by shooting himself through the head with a revolver while seated in a chair. He lived only a few minutes. In his pocket were found three letters showing that he contemplated the act. He was thirty-two years of age, unmarried, and at twenty-one had inherited a fortune, which he had since spent, but was earning a fair salary in connection with iron mines in Pennsylvania county. So far the cause seems to be unknown to his friends.

TO GET RID OF A Troublesome Corn.

First soak it in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing the blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching, protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. E. S. Leachester & Sons.

Terrible plagues, those itching, pestering diseases of the skin. Put an end to misery. Doan's Ointment cures. At any drug store.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me, emphasizing his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh.—Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.
